Complete Stock Tables-Financial News

Features of the Trading, Hour by Hour

Directors of the Cuban-American other sugar shares were firm.

tion of the steel stocks.

duil and practically unchanged.

11 TO 12.

The market was featured in the sec

the common will be reduced at the forthcoming meeting of the board.

stock Wall Street is inclined to dis-

12 TO 1.

professional during the noon hour.

Bears continued to hammer Mexican Petroleum and succeeded in get-count these assertions, of yesterday.

10 TO 11.

There was a let-up this morning in the liquidation which has been so much in evidence in the market this week, but bear traders were slow their hammering tactics, directing the brunt of their assault against Mexican Petroleum and other oil shares But without the assistance of liquidation they were unable to early unsettlement the market took on a steady tone, with most price changes being on the un side.

There was nothing in the way o news on which to base market comerned in most part by technical market conditions. Buildend shares continued to be beloed by the growing possibility that legislation en-

BANKING AND FINANCIAL.

System applied in a brokerage office this has a message for you A prominent New Yorker came into our general office. He is well informed on American business. He wanted to get a birds-eye view of our institution—of our organisation of our system for hand rs' transaction posting their accounts information department the order department of accounting department.

After he had gone through the general office and the 50 Broad Street Branch Office he said, "It's all a revelation to me. I would not have believed that you had such system and or-

Our growth from one office to ten in eight cities has been ac-complished through the appli-ention of banking and commer-

BROAD STREET Tol. Broad 1150 Direct Private Wires

JONES & BAKER

BOSTON & MONTANA Development Company

New action on the IL T. Cook Market Proc. Allen Indones us that Own-

We invite impairing about this rapidly growing mining enterprise

HAMILTON B. WILLS & Co. Founded 1904 Stock Broker 40 Exchange Place, New York Triephone: BROAD ON

WHAT

Every Investor Should Know Is the title of an 80 page illustrated block which contains ratuable information for process and proporties owners of Stocks, Rough Portico Exchange, Liberty Honds, Real Estate or shares in Building and Loss Associations.

Copy send Pres without antication.

Rose & Co. New York

SEALED PROPOSALS for the leare of on brick and steel building, approximatel five handred feet long by seventy-eigh feet wide, will be received at Watertow Arsenal, Watertown, Mass, until 11 A. M on Bept. 1, 1921, and then opened. Further information on application.

LOST, FOUND AND REWARDS. LOST ladies' alier wrist earch, on W. He at or eth av. Howard CLARK, S.E. titts of

FUNERAL DIRECTORS.

Seashore or Mountains Call "Columbus 8200" "THE FUNERAL CHURCH" Inc. 1970 Persadera t 66th St. Downtown Office. 23d Bt. & 8th Av.

CLOSING STOCK QUOTATIONS

Beral Deceb N Y

Servers Convert

Show Shell Steel

douthern Uncific

Stewart Watte

Submarine Boat

Texas & Par

Va Iron Coal & C

West Maryland West Partie Corp.

Westinghouse

White Oil

Texas Co.

| Shell T & T

Alassa Jameso riers will be enacted at this session Am Drag Synd of Congress. Money continued to Am Hale & L w Am Lanced Oil eign exchange operations vesterday Am saw & Com Sugar Company decided to suspend Am dividend payments on the common Att Sanal a generally expected that the market influence was negligible. Cuban- An la France American sold off fractionally, but Am Remater Steel stocks moved within a fract Anacousta firm tone. Further reports were re-ceived that German and Rayman Ry. steel manufacturers are placing At ut & W. Steel products in this country at Baldwin Loop prices substantially below those Beah Stee B put this competition has not assumed sufficient proportions to be Burns Brus Cop & a bear factor on the market post-The cotton and grain markets were Canadian Pacific and hour by a further attack on the Doheny oil shaces. Mexican Petroleum dropped to 88 1-2, o loss of about three points, and Pan-Ameri- C, R I & Pc 7 pol can Petroleum shares dropped ords for the year. Much comment Chile Course was aroused by the fact that Mexican Petroleum 8 per cent preferred stock is offered as low as 75. Orficials of Mexican Petroleum col time & Kee have denied that the dividend on Coumbia Gracia Comp Tab & Rec but because of the action of the Cont Can Corn Products

Cuba Cone Sug of Consol Distributers Outran Arrey Stocks Den & Rio Grande

ting it down to 88 1-2, or within less year. At its low price it gave evidence for the first time that it was being given support, and subsequently raised about a point. Pen- Gen Messialt American issues, however, continued Gaston Wil & General Cimer to rule at the low points of the day and at recessions of about 2 points compared with the closing figures Ges Motor of.

Studebaker, General Motors and other motor shares were heavy on revived reports that recent price cuts have pected extent, and that additional illines Central price cuts will soon be announced. Coppers were inactive and irregular. while railroad stocks continued to maintain a comaratively firm tone later Motor

The fourth hour was a repetition of the preceding hours. Whatever gains were made were of an ephemeral nature and disappeared Josef Fee is on the next sale in most instances. The oils were, as before, the chief Kan City So of . storm centre, and although Mexi-can Petroleum and Pan-American Keanovat throat stood against further declines, Keanovat throat their relative steadiness was not of Lecturanus Steel. a nature that would give the bull-sh element much satisfaction low's fee Cuba Cane Sugar and Industrial low's fee

Can-Amer Petrole

Pan-Amer Petr B.

Fenn R R Fenn Beano Stel

Pergie's Gas

indian Petroleum

Pierce Arrow of ...

Pitteburgo Coni

Pinte & West Va. . Pond Creek Coal . . Present Steel Car . .

Hay Copper

Rep Iron & Steel 46

Pullman Co.

villada Compuny. 29%

Alcohol continued weak. The rail-road group, though martise, ap-peared to be the steadlest on the Mas Elevici. board. Pennsylvania behaved well, Mexican Petroleum Petroleum recovered sharply, sell-ing to above 92. Pan-American Petroleum also recovered to above National Buston.

2 TO 3.

nited States Steel was selling up 1-2 from the opening and Industrial Al-cobol gained 11-2 points from its low for the day. Studebaker sold up 2 points from its low, and Rubber was up fractionally. The raircads, although still mactive, made frac-Nevada Consol New York Airbrake.

tional gains. Phe market closed with prices gener-

No Soap Better -For Your Skin-Than Cuticura Pample such (Sonp. Ointment Taleum) free of Outer Laboratories, Dept. X. Maiden, Mags.

500 Acme Coa 100 Carling Tire 120 Ceto F 1660 Clen Alden Coal 14 Mengel. Box 200 Cardy Synd 285 Cities Service pfd old. 100 Feinsland 300 Int Petrol 1300 Maracalbo Oil

Sterling, demand, 3.631-2; cables 3.64, off .91. French Francs, demand, .0765 1-2; cables, .0766 1-2, off .008. Lare, demand, 0429 1-2; cables, 0430 1-2, off .0004. Belgium francs, demand, 0763 1-2; cables, 0754 1-2. Mark, demand and cables, 0115 3-4, up .0004 1-4. Austrian krouer, demand, .0565; ables, .0560

Swiss franc, demand, 1681; cables, 1683; Holland gilder, demand, 3083; cables, 3085, off 0011; peseta, demand, .1285; cables, .1287; Sweder kronen, demand, .2120; cables, .2125 Norway kronen, demand, 1300; cables, 1305; Denmark kronen, demand 1645; cables, .1650.

HIS NEW DANCE LEADS FROM HOTEL TO A CELL

With Policeman as Partner.

Was it the shimmy, the toddle or th peared to know. But the management of the Hotel Shelburne, Brighton Beach, decided at once that whatever

Thomas L. Malone, manager of the estaurant, requested the young man who was performing startling terpsichorean tricks upon the floor to leave. He demurred. When he had gone to the table with his partner he was asked again to go. Again he refused. Patrolman Bruce was called in to do the arguing. Still the young man sattightly in his seat. Then he aprang from his seat and pushed the officer. After a brief hand-to-hand tight, he was arrested and carried by the patrolman and three other guests, who had also disliked his dancing to an automobile and taken to the Coney Island Station House.

Station House.
There he said he was J. Harrison Pomersy of No. 1873 Eastern Parkway. He was held on a charge of disorderly conduct. luct.
s partner had remained at the taAfter a short stay, she turned up her nose, muttering something about 'slow' and departed. The check re-mained unpaid.

HUNGRY DOGS WOLF-LIKE.

Two Children at Coney Island Vie tims of Abandoned Pets.

Depredations by dogs, wild with unger since they were left behind by departed beach dwellers, continued yes ike, knocked down Sarah Donbests nine years old, last night as the child was playing near her home at No. 2816 Surf Avenue, Coney Island, and bit her

Only forty-eight hours before little Only forty-eight hours before little Florence Sanders of No. 132 West 45th Street was bitten by dogs at the Coney Island brach. Immediate casiterization of the wound is adding her to recovery. Sarah's screams attracted the notice of bathers last night, and they telephoned to the Coney Island Hospital. Dr. Rubino, the ambulance surgeon matterized the wound, which was in the isack, and sent her home.

Efforts to find the dog failed. He had crawled back under the floor of one of the many cottages.

The International Red Cross has of ner, Emanuel Friedman; Justus Franke fered to assist in Russian famine re- and Meyer Saal, public accountants, and lef work in a memorandum presented Henry Levy, an internal revenue into Maxim Litvinoff, special envoy here of the Soviet Government, by a dele. Sues for $25,000 for Palse Arrest Red Cross, the League of Nations and the Interallied Credits Association.

NEW NATIONAL CITY DIRECTOR. The National City Bank elected Roo-ert W. Stewart, Chairman of the Stand-are Oil Company of Indians, a director yesterday. Mr. Stewart resides in Chi-cago. The resignation of J. Orden Ar-mour as a director was accepted. Mr. Armour's rerignation was on account of bery and arraigned before Magisting mour as a director was accopted. Mr. rested a few Armour's regionation was on account of bern and a possible conflict with the provisions of Simmons at the Clayton act.

THE CURB---CLOSING

400 Ryan Cons 100 Salt Creck Prod 300 Sapulpa Ref 800 Simms Pet 200 Spenoer Pet ... 2500 Texnu O & L. 100 Cons Copper M 1500 Corter Silver 2000 Phill Copper

1500 McNamara 2100 National Tin

200 South Am P & G 200 Tonopah Beimon: 200 Tonopak Extension

1500 West Hard 6

FOREIGN BOND 2 Swine Stan 101% 101% 101% I Can Nat Ry En Is.

15 Copper Ean St. '21. 23 Grand Trunk 64s. 1 Gulf Oil 7s.

25 Scars Rochnek 7s. 21... 4 Solvas ei Cle 8s...... 5 Southern Hailway 6s... s Southwest Bell 75..... 104% 104% 104% 5 Sun Oil 7s...... 15 Swift & Cu 7s.

1 Caction: Oil

ULLMAN'S TRIAL SEPT. 6.

Soi Uliman. Assemblyman for the Sirth District of Manhattan and member of the Meyer Legislative Committee, Dr. Rubino, the ambulance surgeon cauterized the wound, which was in the lines, and sent her home.

Efforts to find the dog failed. He had crawled back under the floor of one of the many cottages.

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

The international Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 17 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross Offers to Riga. Aug. 18 (Associated Press).—

International Red Cross

in Hold-Up.
Wolf Spiewak, a jewelry salesman.

Schonfeld for $25,000 damages, alleging irs. Sies, Carrying Candles, Made Pilgrimage to Rocco's Shrine.

GRATEFUL TO SAINT FOR FINDING HER SON

If you were a mother whose son had been gone from home several years and you dreamed that St. Rocco told you that you would find him in church the next morning, and you went to church and found your son, wouldn't you be grateful to the saint?

That is what happened to Mrs. and she was so happy that she made five-mile pilgrimage to St. Rocco's Church on Elizabeth Street, carrying a seventy-pound weight of candles walked all the way from 115th Street to Elizabeth Street to present the offering.

"LONG LIVE THE KING" IS CRY OF BAVARIANS

Anniversary of Former Bodyguard Occasion for Royalist Demonstration.

Crewright, 1921, by the Press Publishing Co. (The New York Evening World). BERLIN, Aug. 17,-The known roy. alist tendencies of Bavaria had a hance for expression on the occasion bodyguard, which the royal borated with that regiment as the Bavarian police still wear their old uniforms it looked like the real royal retinue. The health of royalty Socialist papers have expressed alarm, to which the seactionary Taegiche Rundschau replies, "Very sad, but oan't be helped."

The ex-King, Crown Prince Rup-

MINNIE SELIGMAN LEFT

Reintives Divide Realty, but Bulk of Actress's Fortune Goes

The State transfer tax appraisal, just tramwell Downing, known on the stage $23,398.50. The expenses were $185. Liberty bonds to the value of William Bramwell Downing, gets all a seventh the realty, the other seventh being divided between two piece and a nephew.

GIRL ATTACKED AFTER BLOCK PARTY IS RESCUED.

No. 42 Chriton Avenue, Brookiyo, was the bathroom of the furnished room locked yesterday morning and with the sid of loss lers forced an entrance. The girl told the police of the Hamilton Avenue Station that she had attended a block party Monday night and there met a young man who offered to excort her to her home. Passing the Carroll Street address, the girl said, her companion asked her to enter and meet zome of his friends.

She was attacked, she alleged, as she entered the hallway, but fought off her escort and locked horself in the bathroom.

FIRE ON VANDERBILT HOTEL. aint, Printing and Carpentry

The interior of a little thirty to wenty-foot galvanized iron paint, printing and carpentry shop on the roof of the Hotel Vanderbilt was destroyed by fire at 10.15 last night. Firemen under the supervision of Acting Fire Cha-"Smokey Joe" Martin fought the bias-for half an hour before it could be sub-dued. Damuze was estimated at $10,000.

Shop on Hoof Hurns.

TOOK POISON FOR FLOUR. Three Die in Texas After Enting

LAREDO, Tex. Aug. 17.-Investigation into the origin of a substance which a made into bread here saturday and resulted in the death of three persons, disclosed to-day that the "hour" was part of a barrel of polson which arrived here by freight recently without a label and bearing no address.

BOY WITH HEART DISEASE DROWNED WHILE SWIMMING. William McVey, sixteen, an erran4 boy, of No. 1923 Second Avenue, was

PHILADELPHIA. Aug. 17.-Complyper such that the request of the Government the Board of Trustees, University of Pennsylvania, to-day granted Major "And I?" he said very low. "Does the Board of Trustees, University of Pennsylvania, to-day granted Major Gen. Leonard Wood one year's leave of shaence to become Governor General of the Philippines. Gen. Wood is provest of the university.

The paying too. God knows, I wish we had never met."

in a mob at Deturn for attacking a con-year-old valle girl, was taken from an undertaking establishment at

The Splendid Folly

By MARGARET PEDLER

A REAL LOVE STORY THAT KEEPS THE READER "GUESSING"

SYNOPSIS OF PRECEDING INSTALMENTS.

CHAPTER XIV.

she answered promptly. "Why, Max, that would be breaking the very link petuously. that binds them together—their oneness each with the other You think that, too, don't you? Why—why did
"Yes," he said, his voice to you ask me?" A premonition of evil you ask me?" A premonition of evil

Diana trembled a little. The met assailed her, and her voice trembled ory of that fierce, wild love-making

"I asked you because-because if you marry me you will have to face characteristics of the fact that there is a secret in my to pause and wei something I can't tell you about." was tinged with mystery, a Then, as he saw the blank look on frankly acknowledged that h ber face, he went on rapidly: "It win be the only thing, beloved. There shall be nothing else in life that will be the only thing, beloved. There shall be nothing else in life that will not be ours, between us, shared by us both. I swear it! . . Diana, I "No," he said, "you're right. I not be 'ours, between us, shared by us both. I swear it! . . Diana, I must make you understand. It was occause of this—this secret—that I kept away from you. You couldn't understand—oh! I saw it in your face sometimes. You were hurt by what

I did and said, and it tortured me to hurt you—to see your lips quiver, your eyes suddenly grow misty, and to know it was I who had wounded you, I, who would give the last drop of blood in my body to save you

There was a curious stricken ex-

"So that was it!"

"Yes, that was it. I tried to put you out of my life, for I'd no right "Yes, that was it. I tried to put you out of my life, for I'd no right to ask you into it. And I've failed! "Beloved," he said, and new there to ask you into it. And I've failed! I can't do without you"—his voice, only unutterable tender-ness, "Beloved, please God you will find it in your heart to be good to, a secret between husband and wife is me. All my thoughts are yours, but for that one thing over which I need your faith. . I think no man ever to bear."

When next Diana spoke it was in a cared," he answered. "I fought down it's been like—to be near you, with ing away from her across the stretch you, constantly, and yet to feel that of yellow sand, leaving her alone you were as far removed from me once more with the sea and the sky as the sun itself. Diana—beloved— and the wheeling gulls.

can't you trust me over this one thing? Isn't your love strong enough for that?" She turned on him passionately.

"Oh, you are unfair to me—cruelly unfair! You ark me to trust you!

There was bitter and r in her voice wearily. "And I only ask you to it me. I thought "I know it looks like that," he said her love and her conviction that mark wearily, "And I = n't explain. I can riage under the only circumstances answer any questions. If—if you come to me, it must be in absolute blind trust." He paused, his eyes cutresting her. "Is it too much to ask?"

a low tone of anguish:—
"So this—this, too—must be added The pain in his veice pulled at her She stretched out her hands toward him.

"Max! Give me time!" Max: Give me time!"
He wheeled round and the tenso look of misery in his face hurt her almost physically.
"What do you mean?" he asked

"I must have time to think. Hushand and wife ought to be one. What—what happiness can there be if . If we marry . like this?"

He bent his head.
"None—unless you can have faith. There can be no happiness for us without that."

He took

He took a sudden step toward her.
"Oh, my dear, my dear! I love you Diana began to cry softly-helpless, pathetic, weeping, like a child's.

"And—and I thought we were so happy," she sobbed. "Now it's all spoiled and broken, And you've spoilt it!" "Don't!" he said unsteadily. "Don't cry like that, I can't stand it." He made an instinctive movement to take her in his arms, but she slipped aside, turning on him in sudden massional.

den, passionate reproach.
"Why did you try and make me "Why did you try and make me love you when you knew . all this? I was quite happy before you came—oh, so happy!"—with a sudden yearning recollection of the days of unawakened girlhood. "If—if you had !" me alone, I should have been happy still."

The unthinking selfshness of youth

"I might have gone away-66 ERTAINLY they shouldn't," away from you," he said toneless
A faint, wintry little smile cur her lips.

"I'm glad you didn't."
"Diana!" He sprang "Do you mean that?"

your answer longer than y help. D ana," he added, with quite free to make your decision, fleve in me and possible would inevitably bring un-telling him definitely either that he must trust her altogether or that they must part irrevocably. But the letter was torn up the same after-neon, and Diana went to bed that night with her decision still unshaken, "Can't I help, Di?" Stair asked. The quick color flew into her cheeks.

Impulsively she yielded.
"You needn't Pobs. I'll tell you at about it."
When she had finished, a long she ence ensued.

At last he spoke, "My dear," its said, "it seems to me that if you love him you needs must trust him. Perfect love casteth out fear. Diana shock her head.
"Mightn't you reverse that, Pobe and say that he would trust me—2 and say that he would trust me—is he loves me?"

"No, not necessarily." Alan sucked at his pipe. "He knows what he secret is, and whether it is right wrong for you to share it. You haven't that knowledge. And that where your trust must come in. You have to believe in him enough to leave fidence in his judgment?"

"I don't think husbands and wive

"I don't think husbands and wive should have secrets from one another," profested Diana obstinately.
"My dear, do you love him?"
Diana nodded, her eyes replying.
"Then nothing else matters a strawlif you love him enough to trust him with the whole of the rest of you life, you can surely trust him over a two-penny-half-penny little score which, after all, has nothing in the world to do with you. If you can't do you know what it looks like?"
She regarded him questioningly, "It looks as though you suspected the secret of being a disgraceful on—something of which Max is ashamed to tell you. Do you"—sharply—"thin that?"

"Of course I don't!" she burst ou indignant!

"Then why trouble? Possibly the matter concerns some one else beauties himself, and he may not be all liberty to tell you anything—he might have a dozen different reasons for keeping his own counsel. And the The paying too. God knows, I wish we had never met."

Never to have met! Not to have men his wife is the first to doubt and the woman who loves him and is ready be his wife is the first to doubt and all that those tonths of friendship and a single hour of love his wife is the first to doubt and all that those tonths of friendship and a single hour of love his wife is the first to doubt and destrust him! Diana, you ought to have his wife is the first to doubt and destrust him! Diana, you ought to have his wife is the first to doubt and destrust him! Diana, you ought to have his wife is the first to doubt and destrust him! Diana, you ought to have his wife is the first to doubt and destrust him! Diana, you ought to have his wife is the first to doubt and distrust him! Diana, you ought to have now a mob at Dutura for attacking a few moments she spoke with a gentle.

She had censed crying. After a fourth a wistful composure.

The words hought a gud.

The paying too. God knows, I wish we had never met."

Never to have met! Not to have woman who loves him and is ready be his wife is the first to doubt and distrust him! Diana, you ought to have a dozen different reasons for we had never met."

Never to have met! Not to have woman who loves him and is ready be his wife is the first to doubt and distrust him! Diana, you ought to have a dozen different reasons for we had never met."

Never to have met! Not to have woman who loves him and is ready be his wife is the first to doubt and distrust him! Diana, you ought to had never met."

The paying too. God knows, I wish shan I couldn't help it any more Do Not Miss To-Morrow's Interesting